Notable Experience

Chris has tried and defended a variety of cases in a number of counties in Ohio, including cases involving claims of defective products such as exploding multi-piece wheels, wrongful death, premises liability, and personal injury cases.

In September of 2004, Chris and fellow shareholder and Steubenville, Ohio native Jennifer Nordstrom successfully defended a pharmacy in a misfill case. In this case, negligence was admitted. Plaintiff's demand on behalf of her two minor children was in excess of $1,000,000. A jury returned a verdict in the sum of $25,000 for each of plaintiff's minor children.

Before Freund, Freeze & Arnold

Maryland Attorney General, Correctional Litigation and Criminal Appeals - 1983 (staff attorney). Court of Appeals, Second Appellate District, Dayton, Ohio, 1985 (clerk).

Besides Freund, Freeze & Arnold

Chris and his wife Katie have four children, Aidan, Hannah, Billy, and Mary Kate. Chris's oldest son Aidan recently graduated from Miami University and was commissioned as an ensign in the United States Navy. In his spare time, Chris enjoys family, friends, and fly fishing.
