Notable Experience

Gordon was named a Top 100 "Super Lawyer" in the years 2006 through 2011, a list jointly prepared by Law and Politics Magazine and Cincinnati Magazine. Also named as one of "Best Lawyers in America" for the years 2006 through 2011. He is a mediator with the United States District Court, Southern District of Ohio, Panel of Mediators.

In law school, Gordon was Editor-in-Chief of the University of Akron Law Review. He is the author of several law journal articles on civil procedure, including articles on summary judgment procedure, prejudgment interest for bad faith negotiation, and actions for declaratory judgment. He was a member of the Ohio Civil Practice Journal's Editorial Advisory Board (Banks-Baldwin Law Publishing Co.), 1989-1992. He is a member of SCRIBES, the Society of Writers on Legal Subjects.

He also argued on behalf of successful appellants in Wyckoff Trucking, Inc. v. Marsh Bros. Trucking Serv., Inc. (1991), 58 Ohio St.3d 261, 569 N.E.2d 1049, where a reversal was obtained and previous Ohio law overruled, placing liability in trucking accidents irrefutably on the I.C.C. carrier-lessee whose I.C.C. identification placard is displayed on the vehicle at the time of the accident.

Besides Freund, Freeze & Arnold

Gordon is married and the father of three children. He is President of the Dayton Legal Heritage Foundation and is a member of the Dayton Visual Arts Center's Board of Trustees.
