Notable Experience

Extensive experience representing clients in state and federal courts.

Otte v. Dayton Power & Light Co. (1988), 37 Ohio St. 3d 33, 523 N.E. 835, holding that strict liability for damages caused by neutral-to-earth voltage is not a cause of action that may be asserted against a public utility.

Before Freund, Freeze & Arnold

John worked as a dairy farmer for seven years and worked for a Dayton law firm for three years.

Besides Freund, Freeze & Arnold

John enjoys studying the American Civil War. He also likes to read Greek and Latin classical works.

In addition, John taught in the Paralegal Program at Sinclair Community College from 1994 to 1997.
