Notable Experience

Tim represents clients in defending bodily injury and property damage claims. Occasionally, Tim represents clients who have sustained bodily injuries. He has both prosecuted and defended subrogation claims, from the initial demand through trial. Tim also dedicates his practice to defending bad faith lawsuits and insurance coverage disputes in state and federal courts.

Besides Freund, Freeze & Arnold

Tim enjoys spending time with his friends and family and reads extensively in his free time. He enjoys exercising, golf and kayaking. He is an avid Cincinnati Reds fan.

Tim is a native of Kentucky having been born and raised in Kenton County. He remains involved in the Northern Kentucky community.

Prior to attending law school, Tim worked in the broadcasting industry. He was a photojournalist, assignment editor and produced work between the ABC and CBS affiliates in the Cincinnati television market. While working in television news, Tim covered significant news events.
